Carpets, Oil Cloths and Window shades. We will offer great bargains in these goods for the next twenty days. J. W. Sparks & Bro,'s, Market street.

THE trial of Neal, the last of the Ashland murderers, begins on the 3rd of February. The scaffold on which Craft was hanged is still standing at Grayson.

THE services at the lecture room of the Methodist Church at three p. m. to-day will be omitted on account of the funeral services of Mr. Besle, at the same bour.

It is claimed by a few people that the hog is a good scavenger. Isn't it just a little bit strange that no health committee in any city in the United States has found this to be true?

DOCTORS SMITH & WARDLE have lately added to the furniture of their dental rooms another handsome chair and a new dental engine. They are keeping up with the times in all respects.

A non entered the office of Brooks & Parker's stable on Sunday, and desiring to leave jumped out through a window carrying the glass with it. This, we believe, is called a civilized city.

CHARLES HILL, JR., was arrested on Sunday evening for unlawfully shooting at Wm. Marcum. The affair occurred on Market street, and was the result of a quarrel between the two. Marcum was not injured.

Avoid the harsh, irritating griping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

Stour trestles are to be placed under Limestone bridge for the purpose of strengthening the structure. The work will begin about the middle of the week. under the direction of Mr. Jacob H. Bower, of the Bower Bridge Company, of this city.

THE revival services at the Southern Methodist Church continue with growing interest. Rev. Harry Henderson preached to an immense audience last night, many being turned away. He will continue through the week, preaching at 7 p. m. Several have taken membership. All are invited.

THE Covington Commonwealth says: Mr. Jas. W. Ward has returned home from Maysville in a prostrated condition, though out of danger, from the effects of an overdose of chloral, accidentally taken. We are reliably informed that he winter. had been using it to quiet his nerves, which nervousness was caused through natural sickness and not drinking.

Church goers yesterday witnessed in eight that is by no means uncommon in this city. They saw an old sow lying on the sidewalk at the foot of the steps to Judge Wall's residence on Second street busily engaged administering to the wants of seven pigs. The entrance to the house was entirely blocked by this interesting business. Will you vote next January to continue such things in the city?

COCCANUT PUDDING for Thanksgiving: Two quarts rich, tart apples, chopped as for mince pie; one cup sago, swelled with two cups boiling water; one cup sugar, and one and a half cups desiccated cocoanut; mix intimately and bake one hour in an earthern pudding dish. Serve cold. This is a pudding worthy to grace any occasion when a pudding can be served, and containing no butter or fat, it is not difficult of digestion.

Ms. Tuonas Brans, who has been in Ewing Station.

J. A. Jackson left last Friday for Lewis feeble health for some time past, died on county. He will visit Vanceburg before he returns. dence of Miss America Gibson, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia, and at an early age came to Maysville and lived here office on Pike street. until he was fifteen years of age, when he removed to the South. After the war he returned to this city, and has since resided here. He was a kind-hearted man, and had many friends in the community. The funeral will take place from Miss Gibson's residence this afternoon at three o'clock, after services by Times-Democrat: A private letter written by Mrs. R. J. Samuel to a friend in this city, conveys the welcome intelligence that her busband writes her from remsylvania that the C. and S. E. R. R. will assuredly be built. Dr. T. A. Henderson, of the M. E. Church, South.
